Jaffe Attorney Nicole Hertzberg Named to Detroit Jewish News/The Well "36 Under 36" List

Jan. 16, 2020-Nicole Hertzberg, an associate at Jaffe Raitt Heuer & Weiss, P.C., has been named to the Detroit Jewish News/The Well '36 Under 36' list. Jaffe CEO Jeffrey M. Weiss made the announcement.

The Detroit Jewish News/The Well '36 Under 36' list recognizes 36 young professionals under the age of 36 that have made a positive impact in Metro Detroit. Specifically, those who are reshaping and broadening the Jewish community.

Hertzberg is a member of the Jaffe estate & wealth planning practice group. She concentrates her practice in the areas of gift, estate, and tax planning, wealth transfer, charitable giving and trust administration. She works with individuals and families of all estate sizes to help them understand the options available for wealth transfer, both now and in the future.

Hertzberg is also a member of the Jaffe Women's Caucus Group. She co-chairs the social/charitable outreach sub-committee, which focuses on building relationships among the members of the Jaffe Women's Caucus Group by coordinating social events. The sub-committee also provides members with a platform to provide information to the group about non-profits that they are passionate about or active in and also provides members with the opportunity of giving back to various charities.

Outside of Jaffe, Hertzberg serves as a member of the NEXTGen Board of Directors, is a co-chair of EPIC (NEXTGen's largest and premiere annual fundraising event), and serves as a member of the B'nai B'rith Youth Organization Michigan Region Young Alumni Committee.

Hertzberg holds a J.D. from the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, where she served as the Managing Editor of the Cardozo Journal of Conflict Resolution. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology from the University of Michigan.
