Susan Sutton is an attorney in our Estate & Wealth Planning practice group. She specializes in estate planning, wealth transfer, business succession planning, and trust administration. Susan concentrates her practice on preserving wealth, transferring wealth, and succession planning. She advises individuals, families, and business owners when it comes to basic estate planning, wills, revocable trusts, and powers of attorney, as well as more complicated wealth preservation and transfers planning using family limited liability companies or partnerships, irrevocable trusts, and other wealth transfer vehicles. Susan's expertise ensures that her client's wishes are heard and strategically implemented while their legacy is preserved, both today and into the future.
